Sir:

In the Official Action dated "10/25/2004," the Examiner alleged:

"The oath or declaration is defective because:

It does not state that the person making the oath or declaration has reviewed and understands the contents of the specification, including the claims, as amended by any amendment specifically referred to in the oath or declaration."

The Examiner is in error.

Since no amendment is specifically referred to in the declaration as originally filed, that declaration, as originally filed, clearly complies with the requirements of 37 CFR 1.63. Nevertheless, in order to satisfy the Examiner's peculiar misunderstanding of the Rules, a Supplemental Declaration is filed herewith which contains the unnecessary language specified by the Examiner.
